1 PURPOSE OF REPORT AND EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 1.1. At its meeting on 9 March 2017, the Standards and General Purposes Committee established a small working group comprising Councillors Mary-Jane Jeanes, Ian Munn and David Williams. The Committee asked the working group to consider nominations for the award of the freedom of the borough and report back.
- 1.2. At its meeting on 29 June 2017, the Standards and General Purposes Committee considered the report of the working group and agreed to recommend to Council that the award of Freedom of the Borough be made posthumously to the late Reverend Andrew Wakefield in recognition of the substantial contribution he made to the borough.
- 1.3. The Committee also agreed to recommend to Council that it records its thanks and presents a certificate to the 210 Squadron to congratulate it on its 50th anniversary and recognise the Squadron's long service to the borough.

2 DETAILS

Freedom of the Borough

- 2.1. The Standards and General Purposes Committee noted that the Freedom of the Borough is an important honour that requires careful thought prior to bestowal. The Committee was also mindful of the criteria and process for awarding Freedom of the Borough (set out in Appendix 1 of this report), in particular that it should only be awarded in exceptional circumstances where the prospective recipient is an individual or organisation of distinction and has rendered eminent services to the borough.

- 2.2. The Committee agreed that the posthumous nomination of the late Reverend Andrew Wakefield (set out in Appendix 2) met the criteria and demonstrated that he had made a substantial contribution to the borough's religious and spiritual life, civic service and charitable work. The nomination is supported by all Groups on the Council and therefore would meet the 2/3 requirement at Council.
- 2.3. The Committee therefore recommended that the nomination should be forwarded to Council for agreement.
Special commendation
- 2.4. The Standards and General Purposes Committee also discussed the strong links that the 210 Squadron, based in Stonecot Hill, has to the borough. It has worked in partnership with churches and other local organisations as well as taking the lead in Remembrance Sunday parades for over 30 years and, more recently, on Armed Forces Day parades. The Committee noted that the 210 Squadron would be celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.
- 2.5. The Committee has therefore recommended that that Council congratulate the 210 Squadron on its 50th anniversary, thank it for the role it plays in the borough and, at a future meeting, present it with a framed certificate.

3 NEXT STEPS

Freedom of the Borough

- 3.1. If Council accepts the recommendation of Standards and General Purposes to confer the freedom of the borough on the late Reverend Andrew Wakefield, the next steps are:
 - a) Council, in accepting the recommendation, should resolve to hold a Special Meeting of Council at which it would pass the resolution as required by Section 248 of the Local Government Act 1972 to bestow the Freedom of the Borough on the late Reverend Andrew Wakefield
 - b) A Special Meeting of Council would then be held, possibly immediately prior to the scheduled Council meeting on 13 September, subject to the availability of family and friends of the late Reverend Andrew Wakefield.

3.2. Special Commendation

- 3.3. If Council accepts the recommendation of Standards and General Purposes Committee in relation to the 210 Squadron, a framed certificate would be presented to the 210 Squadron at a future meeting of Council.

4 ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS

- 4.1. These matters are entirely within the discretion of Council..

5 CONSULTATION UNDERTAKEN OR PROPOSED

- 5.1. The recommendations have been discussed and agreed by the political groups.

6 TIMETABLE

- 6.1. If the recommendation relation to freedom of the borough is accepted, a special meeting of Council will need to be scheduled..

Criteria and Process for Awarding Freedom of the Borough

Criteria

Freedom of the Borough is a high honour which should only be awarded in exceptional circumstances where the prospective recipient is an individual or organisation of distinction and has rendered eminent services to the borough.

Candidates should have a strong and continuing connection with and commitment to Merton or have made a major contribution to national life and in doing so have enhanced the reputation of the borough.

Candidates should have made a substantial contribution to the borough in any area of activity, which could include:

- artistic and cultural endeavours
- business, economic growth and prosperity
- charitable work
- improvement to the built and natural environment
- religious and spiritual life
- sports activities
- civic service

The award may be granted posthumously.

Procedures

Nominations for persons or organisations to be granted Freedom of the Borough, may be made by any serving Member of the Council to the Monitoring Officer on the appropriate form. The Member should first raise the matter for discussion within their political group.

Once a nomination is received, the Monitoring Officer will check that sufficient information has been provided on the form and will pass it to the Standards and General Purposes Committee for consideration.

The Monitoring Officer will write to all councillors at least once during the four yearly municipal cycle, preferably at or near the midpoint, to draw their attention to the opportunity to make nominations

The Standards and General Purposes Committee may establish a small working group to informally assess nominations and the likelihood of meeting the 2/3 criteria. The working group would report back to the Standards and General Purposes Committee in regard to any nominee who it believed would meet the criteria and achieve sufficient support at Council.

Standards and General Purposes Committee shall report to Council and, should Council accept the nomination, a Special Meeting of Council would then be called to pass the resolution as required by Section 248 of the Local Government Act 1972.

YES

NO

4. Please use the box below to outline your nominee's outstanding achievements in the Borough or on the international stage which have brought pride and satisfaction to the Borough. Continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

Andrew Wakefield's contribution to the life of the London Borough of Merton was exceptional. He was an ordained minister in the Church of England – recently serving as Borough Dean - but once joked that his bishop would be amazed at how much time he gave to life in the community. In death the Bishop of Kingston wrote of his large, 'generous and expansive character' who was a real 'person and priest' and that 'he cared deeply about justice in the community and strong interfaith relations. He worked tirelessly and determinedly in the Civic life of Merton and beyond'.

In short Andrew Wakefield demonstrably fulfilled at least three of the 'contribution criteria' of a candidate for Freeman of the Borough, albeit posthumously.

Initially his involvement began with the South London Industrial Mission where he started working with council members and officers. Gradually his contacts across the civic and public life of the borough were immense and he moved easily between all political perspectives.

Andrew played a key part in the formation of the GLA's Civic Forum which he chaired and it underlined his capacity to represent the community and voluntary sector. His involvement across many areas of public policy was a sign of his ability to represent the wide range of opinions that are found in any civic and public debate. Andrew was also an entrepreneur, which led him into many activities that had business links. He chaired Merton Chamber of Commerce.

Andrew paid a critical part in setting up the London Inter Faith Forum. He also displayed an immense ability to work across all faith traditions and in Merton was a regular participant at both the Mosque and Synagogue.

He was also Chairman of the Safer Neighbourhood Board and actively involved in the police's advisory body as a passionate advocate of inclusion and social cohesion.

His roles led naturally to a request that he chaired the Merton Partnership's Community Plan for Merton which, of necessity, drew on his breadth of experience in so many different capacities to assist in the creation of a healthy community

In summary, Roehampton University awarded him an honorary Doctorate of Divinity not long before his sudden and untimely death, for his 30 years of service to Merton. As a minister, Andrew's prayer was both traditional and practical and he knew T. S. Eliot's poem with the words 'and prayer is more than words'. I submit respectfully that the Council should likewise turn the words of this nomination into action and award him the highest honour it can bestow - the Freedom of the Borough.
