

View of market area as existing with railings, concrete planters without

View as proposed with reduced carriage way width and enlarged market space. New tree planting replaces trees lost to seating and space for market and community activities.

This page is intentionally left blank